Mr. K. T. BHASHYAM AIYANGAR.—Will not at least approximate statistics be of some help?

Mr. M. VENKATANARANAPPA.—Sometimes they are worse than no statistics.

Mr. K. T. BHASHYAM AIYANGAR.—Without statistics, how is it possible for the Government to find out the progress made in the matter of relieving unemployment?

Mr. M. VENKATANARANAPPA.—Government have started new industries, irrigation works, electrical works, etc., and as far as possible they have been providing employment.

Mr. K. T. BHASHYAM AIYANGAR.—Have any sales agencies been established in important commercial centres in India?

Mr. M. VENKATANARANAPPA.—Yes. We have an emporium at Bombay.

Mr. K. T. BHASHYAM AIYANGAR.—How many Mysoreans are employed there?

Mr. M. VENKATANARANAPPA.—Two or three.

Mr. K. T. BHASHYAM AIYANGAR.—Will such emporiums be established in other commercial places also?

Mr. PRESIDENT.—We will gladly welcome suggestions from the members in that regard.

Mr. K. T. BHASHYAM AIYANGAR.—We have given suggestions often but nothing tangible has been done so far. For instance, we have been asking for the establishment of sales agencies in all important places. If they are established, they will provide employment for Mysoreans, and Mysore products also can find a sale. Again, large extents of agricultural lands are lying banjar. Why not give them to the unemployed at concession rates for cultivation?

The SECOND MEMBER (Rajamantrapravina N. Madhava Rau).—This is not the time to discuss all possible measures of relief.

Mr. PRESIDENT.—This one question can be argued for the whole day. This matter might be discussed at the time of representations.

Mr. S. K. VENKATARANGA IYENGAR.—What has become of the report of the Unemployment Committee appointed by the Government some time ago?

Mr. PRESIDENT.—There is no report.

Mr. S. K. VENKATARANGA IYENGAR.—How did it end?

Mr. PRESIDENT.—Without a report.

Mr. S. K. VENKATARANGA IYENGAR.—Were there any non-official members on the committee?

Mr. PRESIDENT.—That is a separate question.

Mr. S. K. VENKATARANGA IYENGAR.—Did the committee dissolve automatically?

Mr. PRESIDENT.—That question has been answered several times in this very House. The committee ceased to function long long ago.

Mr. K. CHENGALARAYA REDDY.—Cannot the question of unemployment be solved to some extent by subsidising medical practitioners in rural areas?

Mr. N. MADHAVA RAU.—With the help of local bodies, it is the desire of Government to do this. This is one of the measures of relief under consideration.

A School Building for Mandya Extension.

Q.—8. Messrs. M. C. LINGE GOWDA and S. C. MALLIAH (Maddur Taluk); H. HOMBE GOWDA (T.-Narsipur Taluk); M. L. LINGANNA and H. HONNIAH (Mandya Taluk) and K. KEMPE GOWDA (Mandya Municipality).—

Will the Government be pleased to state:—

(a) what is the number of boys in the Mandya Middle School (particulars to be furnished classwar);

(b) what is the number of girls (classwar);

(c) had not representations been received from the residents of Mandya and other leading men for the construction of a separate middle school building in the Mandya Extension?

A.—The SECRETARY to GOVERNMENT, GENERAL DEPARTMENT (Mr. M. Venkatesa Iyengar.)—

	IV	III	II	I	Total
(a)	95	91	68	136	390
(b)	8	10	9	20	47

(c) No.

Mr. M. C. LINGE GOWDA.—When will a separate building for the school be constructed ?

Mr. M. VENKATESA IYENGAR.—As soon as funds become available.

Mr. B. S. PUTTASWAMY.—So long as 6 years ago, was not a representation made in this House for the construction of a separate building for the middle school ?

Mr. M. VENKATESA IYENGAR.—That is possible, but there are many other places where school buildings are equally necessary. Government could not find funds for all of them.

Mr. B. S. PUTTASWAMY.—Is the answer furnished to (c) correct ?

Mr. M. VENKATESA IYENGAR.—If the member says that it is not correct, it will be verified.

Mr. S. C. MALLIAH.—Has it come to the notice of the Government that classes are being held in the verandah for want of sufficient accommodation inside the building ?

Mr. N. S. SUBBA RAO.—It is common knowledge and a matter that has been engaging the attention of the department for several years, that the school wants additional accommodation and better accommodation. Before the new block of rooms was put up, the department had been negotiating with a local merchant who had promised to put up an adequate building in return for a suitable rent, but when the agreement had almost been concluded, the gentleman made impossible demands such as a lease for 20 years and the negotiation was dropped. For the present the accommodation is just adequate, though not satisfactory from other points of view. There is no doubt that Mandya needs a new building for the middle school, and the department will try to make very early provision for it.

Mr. H. HOMBE GOWDA.—Is it not a fact that children in the area have got to cross the railway line to attend the school ?

Mr. N. S. SUBBA RAO.—Yes.

Mr. H. HOMBE GOWDA.—Is it not dangerous ?

Mr. N. S. SUBBA RAO.—It is not possible to have two schools on account of that.

Mr. B. T. KESAVAIENGAR.—You seem to be asking for an expression of opinion.

Mr. P. BASAVE GOWDA.—Yes.

Mr. PRESIDENT.—Then, we will consider it.
